1. By entering into this agreement, the Faculty grants the Borrower the use of the electronic equipment, specifically identified below, together with the specified accessories ("electronic equipment"), and the Borrower is entitled to use the electronic equipment for the specified period of time, subject to the conditions and operating principles stipulated below.
2. Matters not regulated by this Agreement are governed by the Operating and Borrowing Rules of the Law Faculty Library and the Civil Code applicable on the date of signing the contract.
3. The borrowing period -14 or 28 days and the penalty for late return (CZK 100 /day) are set according to the Uniform Borrowing Matrix (Rector's Directive N. 21/2017).
4. The Borrower is obliged to take due care of the electronic equipment and to ensure, in consideration of its nature, that no damage be caused to it. The Borrower undertakes to protect the electronic equipment against loss and theft. The Borrower undertakes to use the electronic equipment in such a way that the rights of third parties, in particular copyright and personality rights, are not infringed.
5. The Borrower is obliged to return all borrowed electronic devices to the library in a fully functional condition, with the contents deleted, and fully charged, so that its functioning can be checked. If the functioning of the electronic equipment cannot be checked, the Faculty will not accept its return.
6. The Parties expressly agree that if the Borrower returns the electronic equipment in a condition in which it can no longer serve its purpose, the Faculty is entitled to charge the Borrower a contractual penalty equal to the purchase price of the electronic equipment. Furthermore, if the Borrower fails to return the electronic equipment within 15 days after the end of the set borrowing period, the Faculty is entitled to charge the Borrower a contractual penalty equal to the purchase price of the electronic equipment. If the Borrower fails to return any item of electronic equipment accessories within 15 days after the end of the set borrowing period, the Faculty is entitled to charge the Borrower a contractual penalty of CZK 300 for each item of accessories destroyed or not returned.
7. This Agreement is executed in two counterparts, one for each Party.
